| (1) 2½"x2½" BROWN square | |

Assembly

1. Place the 2½"x4½" GREEN rectangle right-side-up (RSU) on your work surface. Place a 2½"x6½" NEUTRAL rectangle Right-Sides-Together (RST) with the GREEN (as shown). Take care to line up the left edges and the upper edges of your fabrics.
2. Sew from the bottom left of the GREEN to the upper right of the NEUTRAL (dotted line). Cut ¼" from the sewn seam (solid line).
3. Press the seam. Then open and press the seam allowance toward the GREEN.

4. Place the unit you just made RSU on your work surface. Place a 2½"x6½" NEUTRAL rectangle RST with the unit you just made (as shown). Take care to line up the right edges and the upper edges of your fabrics.

5. Sew from the bottom right of the GREEN to the upper left of the NEUTRAL (dotted line). Cut ¼" from the sewn seam (solid line).
6. Press the seam. Then open and press the seam allowance toward the GREEN.
7. Repeat steps 1-6 using:
 - a. the 2½"x6½" GREEN rectangle with (2) 2½"x5½" NEUTRAL rectangles.
 - b. the 2½"x8½" GREEN rectangle with (2) 2½"x4½" NEUTRAL rectangles.
 - c. the 2½"x10½" GREEN rectangle with (2) 2½"x3½" NEUTRAL rectangles.
 - d. the 2½"x12½" GREEN rectangle with (2) 2½"x2½" NEUTRAL squares.

8. Sew the remaining (2) 2½"x5½" NEUTRAL rectangles and the 2½"x2½" BROWN square in a row with the BROWN in the middle, pressing the seams before opening and then pressing the seam allowances toward the BROWN.

9. Arrange your strips as shown. Sew rows together, pressing the seams before opening and then pressing the seam allowances to one side.
