

Ashe County Piecemakers Guild Meeting Minutes

October 13, 2022

Jefferson Methodist Church

Vicki Duckworth, President, opened meeting with a welcome and introduced 3 visitors attending

Sunshine Chair needed to distribute for cards and birthday fat quarter monthly meetings: Betsy Zirolu volunteered

October Birthdays: Lois Dickson, Lisa Taylor

Wednesday classes will be made available for those who are interested in making community quilts. Fabric is available in the closet if needed. These classes are at Generations Ashe every Wednesday 9-12, Room 1.

Projects: Susan Miller

- Upcoming Projects
  - November 10:
    - Favorite ornament as a 6" quilt block for the Christmas Tree decorating project at Ashe Arts Council. If you want yours returned put contact information on back of ornament
    - High County Figurative Artists to present program. Dolls will be available for sale.
  - December 8:
    - Christmas Party: "Pot Luck Desserts" with Fat Quarter Christmas fabric games
    - Fat Quarter Christmas fabric
    - Christmas Community Service Project of Bibs and Burp Cloths for the Ashe Pregnancy Center is due.

January 2023 - pending

"Show and Tell"

- Jean Evans, Tote Bag
- Susan Miller and Sara Ruth, Dana's work pillow
- Susan Miller, black and red quilt for brother-in-law
- Crumb quilt Linda Katsoudas,
- Crumbies completed 2 quilts, Irene Bebbler and Carol Landry
- Stacey Weck pattern, Margie Miller
- Baby girl quilt, Linda Gagnon
- Embroidery on denim jacket Gillian Winterton
- Baby llamas quilt, Sara Ruth Phipps
- Rag quilt, Faye Martin

- Request to complete a quilt top, Lois Dickson. Please contact if interested

Free fabric table available. Any fabric that is left will be donated to the Salvation Army

Meeting adjourned by Vickie Duckworth, President

Respectfully submitted,
Mickey McComb, Secretary