

ACPQG Board Minutes October 13, 2022

In attendance; Vicki It was Duckworth, Rhonda Lyon, Catherine Finch, Sarah Ruth Phipps, Jean Evans, Michele Hayes, Mickey McComb, Susan Miller, Janet Ward

Call to order at 10:00 by Vicki Duckworth, President

September meeting minutes reviewed: no changes

Janet Ward:

- Report on Heritage Days for the school children on September 21-23, 2022. It was very successful! Vicki Duckworth, Susan Miller and Jean Evans participated in this event. Discussion to make this a yearly event and to include the Saturday 2023 event which is open to the public.
- New River State Park: Janet spoke concerning selling and pricing at this quarterly event. To be discussed in the future.
- Community Quilt: assembly of the blocks to be performed by the Crumbies. Finished quilt will be approximately 96" x 96". Sara Ruth to contact Donna Combs concerning quilting the completed quilt

Treasurer's report: Rhonda Lyon

Programs: Susan Miller

- Upcoming Projects
  - November:
    - Favorite ornament as a 6" quilt block for the Christmas Tree decorating project at Ashe Arts Council. If you want yours returned put contact information on back of ornament
    - High County Figurative Artists to present program. Dolls will available for sale.
  - December 8:
    - Fat Quarter Christmas fabric
    - New Business: Christmas Community Service Project of Bibs and Burp Cloths for the Ashe Pregnancy Center is due.
    - There will be a dessert potluck, hot coffee, cider and water will be available.
- Closet giveaway at October meeting
- Quilt Mother: Laura Sage. Goes to various events in Ashe County with the Fundraiser quilt. Tickets are sold at these events for the final drawing.
- Sunshine volunteer replacement needed

Pending:

Bylaws Review

2023 BOM Inspired Challenge

Meeting adjourned by Vicki Duckworth

Respectfully submitted,
Mickey McComb
ACPQG Secretary