- One of our Wednesday gatherings was spent sorting and putting together kits from a recent generous fabric donation from Janice Dreisbaugh (a 'thank you' note was sent on behalf of the Guild). A HUGE thank you to those that participated! Teamwork makes easy work for something that can seem a bit overwhelming. These kits will be offered at the January guild meeting. January program will be Jennifer Ley presenting a Bonnie Hunter tool. Please bring with you your favorite quilting tool and a project you made if available.

Please bring a fat quarter in spring colors for the drawing.

Sarah Ruth will be handing out instructions for February BOM which will also be spring colors.

February: Big month!

- QUILT CON!!!! In Raleigh. What a GREAT opportunity for learning and maybe meet new friends / acquaintances or a possible quilt guru 😊
- February BOM is due and will be tulip swirl in spring fabrics. Program will be on “Panel Discussion” There are some donated panels available if interested.
- March fat quarter in green fabrics for drawing
- April: library challenge quilt
- May: Retreat.
- June: Picnic at the park

Quilt Mother..... HMMM

As discussed, Michele Hayes will be contacting a guidance counselor at the high school for set up and take down of the tent for students requiring community service hours.

A few side notes:

Waiting for bank signatures for online account for donor box.

Michele Hayes will be sending Sarah Ruth contact information to follow up on monies made from Adrian Sherrow’s estate sale.

Thank you to Susan Miller for holding down the table during Wendy’s absence, great job!

Guild meeting will be canceled if remote learning is in effect because of weather.

Debby Keightley will be updating our directory.

Discussion is open on changing the logo on the name badges to something more legible. Ideas please.

The board members have discussed and agreed to try to improve communication amongst us so that everyone is on board with activities, rules, and regulations since most of us are very new to the guild and our positions.

Those that are attending Quilt con – possible transferable patch with the guild name that could be worn on a shirt, sweater etc....again, open for ideas. Alicia Canfield will be looking into this possibility.
