Hello, Quilters.

Here comes February. I'm glad it's a short month...even with the extra day added on. Our daylight hours are getting longer, too.

Challenge quilts are our next project to be working on, due at our April 9th guild meeting, followed by Marathon Jam quilts due in May. In between projects, don't forget items for the Silent Auction and for the Boutique at our upcoming quilt show. So, maybe we should just hope for a very snowy couple of days, where we can't go anywhere, just sit and sew. Maybe not.

I understand we have folks out there busily making quilts for our Community Service closet. We really need them in case (more likely, when) we have a fire in the area. Our quilts are such a wonderful gift to give to someone who has just lost everything they own. Thank you to everyone out there working on this ongoing project. You are appreciated!

See you at our meeting on February 13th, Ces

Happy Birthday

Sew Day: Because Kathy and Tammy will both be out of town, Sewing Day for February Community Service Quilts is cancelled.

Tammy Hutchinson will conduct a half-square triangle workshop, limited to six people, March 9th or 16th – weather dependent.

State Park: Be thinking about small quilts for the State Park. Carol will need them in March.

Laura Sage will have kits for baby bibs, blankets, and bowl cozies available at the February meeting to be completed and turned in at the March meeting.
