

Ashe County Piecemaker's Board Minutes

July 13, 2023

Attendants: Jean Evans, Michelle McComb, Sarah Ruth Phipps, Alicia Canfield, Michele Hayes, Vicki Duckworth, Laura Sage and Mary Rodgers

Meeting was called to order at 10:00 am by Jean Evans

Treasurers report by Sarah Ruth Phipps: beginning balance $7,740.56 – ending balance $9,428.82

Each attending member received a copy of expenses.

Sarah Ruth will also present a prototype of August BOM at the July 13, 2023, guild meeting.

Vicki Duckworth suggested separation of 2023-2024 fundraiser tickets which will be followed up later. Vicki will be distributing 2024 fundraiser blocks at the July meeting. Vicki and Laura Sage recommended trying to gather a committee to help whomever we can coerce into being quilt queen. In addition, the recommendation was made to order 1800 more tickets. Vicki Duckworth will also investigate changing and reordering Quilt maker cards that are distributed to venues in town, for new members and anyone interested in learning to quilt.

Mary Rodgers addressed the National quilt Show in Raleigh and the class schedule, the date of July 19 at Bohemia was agreed upon to further discuss class attendants and the possibility of helping pass on valuable information and skills to other guild members.

Jean discussed the availability of premade quilt labels that can be picked up from Dianne Dallas for charity quilts.

There will be a 9:00 meeting July 26th to choose a committee for a wall hanging for the dining room at Generations.

July 19 & 20 Janet Ward will be doing a short summer camp, High School level program on quilting. She will also be involved with Frontier Days through the historical society for the 4th graders. Dates are unclear at present.

Susan Miller has confirmed a small quilt showing at the Arts Council for 2024. More to learn about that, GREAT opportunity!

Scissor sharpening by Lamar South $12 will be available at the August guild meeting in addition to our annual yard sale.

Baby quilts will be due in November and presented at the December meeting to the Ashe Pregnancy Center. Please give quilts to Michele Hayes.

July 14, 2023 Board minutes submitted by - Alicia Canfield

